One person. One animal.

One remarkable impact.

Your contribution to Tayler County Animal Rescue can help rescue a neglected or abused dog—a single animal in desperate need of a second chance.

Once in our care, your generous support will house, feed, and train her. She becomes, in a sense, your dog.

However, you're not only helping a dog that you'll come to know. You're also helping a person you may never know—a disabled child, a lonely adult, or a weary traveler wanting nothing more than to get home safely.

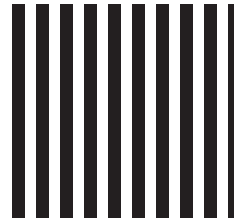

All it takes is one contribution that echoes for years to come.

rescuing people

Chris, thanks to previous Patron-level sponsors like you,
Tayler County
Animal Rescue has been saving dogs and retraining them to help people for more than 30 years. But there are always animals in need—and there is always a constant need for support from generous sponsors.

One person. One animal.

One remarkable impact.

Your contribution to Tayler County Animal Rescue can help rescue a neglected or abused horse—a single animal in desperate need of a second chance.

Once in our care, your generous support will house, feed, and train him. He becomes, in a sense, your horse.

However, you're not only helping a horse that you'll come to know. You're also helping countless people you may never know—an autistic child, an injured adult, or a person with special needs eager to live more independently.

All it takes is one contribution that echoes for years to come.

One person. One animal.

One remarkable impact.

Your contribution to Tayler County Animal Rescue can help rescue a neglected or abused dog—a single animal in desperate need of a second chance.

Once in our care, your generous support will house, feed, and train her. She becomes, in a sense, your dog.

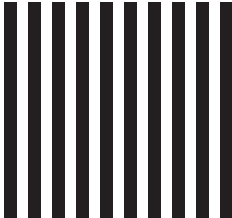

However, you're not only helping a dog that you'll come to know. You're also helping a person you may never know—a disabled child, a lonely adult, or a weary traveler wanting nothing more than to get home safely.

All it takes is one contribution that echoes for years to come.
